

House Rules

We've got a few house rules to make sure everyone has a blast without causing a ruckus.

Here's the lowdown:

Occupancy

The number of guests the property sleeps is the maximum permitted inside or outside at any time (external guests are not permitted onsite).

Noise

We totally get that you've got the coolest taste in music, but let's keep the decibels in check. Close those windows and doors when you're rocking your tunes – others might not appreciate your DJ skills, Decks must be off totally by midnight.

Sorry, but your DJ talents aren't needed outside at any time.

Hot Tub Hours

Our hot tub is like Cinderella – it's only the belle of the ball between 8 AM and 10 PM. Check out the hot tub guide for the ultimate soak-down.

Furniture Fiasco

Please resist the urge to play interior designer during your stay. If you absolutely must rearrange things, just pop them back in their original spots before you hit the road. Feng shui enthusiasts, we're counting on you.

Rubbish & Recycling

Take a leisurely stroll to the end of the car park to bid farewell to your rubbish. Recycling bins are also there, waiting for your eco-friendly contributions. We believe in giving rubbish a proper send-off.

Smoking & Vaping

No indoor puffing – our walls aren't fans of second hand smoke. If you're an outdoor aficionado, dispose of those cigarette ends responsibly. We're all about keeping it clean, folks.

Behavioral Bliss

Be the superhero of kindness! Treat our staff, fellow guests, and anyone else you're sharing space with like the absolute legends they are. Kindness is like glitter – sprinkle that stuff everywhere!

No Pyrotechnics or Romantic Candlelit Dinners

Fireworks, Chinese lanterns, candles, and tea lights are a no-go. We're not trying to ruin the party, but we've got a thing against turning our place into a disco inferno. Safety first, folks!

Now that you're up to speed on the "House Rules," go ahead and make yourself at home. Enjoy your stay, and remember – laughter is the best room service!

Guest Grievances

We strive to make your stay as delightful as a chocolate-covered unicorn ride. If you encounter any issues during your time with us, please speak up while you're still here. Give us the chance to fix things up, and we'll work our magic. Refunds or compensations won't be conjured up for complaints made after you've bid us adieu. So, let's nip any problems in the bud and keep the good vibes flowing!
